On Saturday, September 13, the Edmonton Muslim community and friends will honour Mr. Dennis Edney Q.C. for his selfless human rights work on behalf of all Canadians, and especially Muslim Canadians.

For years Mr. Edney has worked on behalf of Omar Khadr using his own money to support his efforts. He has travelled all over the world to raise awareness about the violation of Mr. Khadr's legal and human rights.

Mr. Edney has received several human rights awards and is recognized all over the world as a hero of the Rule of Law.

Archbishop Desmond Tutu recently said it is "unconscionable" that Khadr, following a "travesty of a trial, where he was treated as an adult in a vicious kangaroo court", should be languishing in jail and that his own country Canada should be an accomplice in holding him in prison. "This is an example of a horrible miscarriage of justice and that in a modern democratic state."
